Black History Month 2021 Proud to Be

Why don't you...?

Read 'Windrush Child' by Benjamin Zephaniah, about a Jamaican boy who moves to England after WW2. Ask your school librarian about availability, or find out more here.

Watch Amanda Gorman's reading of her poem, 'The Hill We Climb', at President Biden's Inauguration. Click here!

Visit the Frederick Douglass mural at 50 Gilmore Place. Alternatively, create a mural of black people, past or present, famous or non-famous, who have inspired you. Find the location here.
