

#EdinburghSchoolLibrarians celebrate

#HiVIS2021 in Libraries

Check out these items from your school library or speak to your school librarian.

Read a book. Try one of the suggested titles or ask your school librarian.

Learn about Helen Keller, who was blind, deaf and an activist for disability rights.

Did you know there are lots of ways people with sight-loss can read books? Why not do some research or ask your school librarian who can help you.

